INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,067,525

10. SFA is the owner by assignment of United States Patent No. 6,067,525 (“the ‘525 patent”) entitled “Integrated Computerized Sales Force Automation System,” a true copy of which is attached as Exhibit A. The ‘525 patent was issued on May 23, 2000.

11. The claims of the ‘525 patent were construed by order of Honorable Leonard Davis of the Eastern District of Texas, Tyler Division on February 23, 2009 a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit B.

12. Defendant BigMachines has been and now is directly infringing the `525 patent by making, using, selling and offering to sell in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States computer implemented sales systems and methods for facilitating processes relating to the sale of products and services, including its sales configurator, B2B eCommerce, pricing and quoting and proposal generator software-as-a-service solutions such as its “Light Front End” and “BigMachines” web-based solutions and its “eCommerce engine,” covered by one or more claims of the `525 patent. BigMachines has indirectly infringed the `525 patent by inducing its licensed customers and third party users of its software-as-a-service solutions to use and practice the computer implemented sales systems and methods covered by the claims of the `525 patent. Further details regarding BigMachines’ infringement of the `525 patent are set forth in SFA’s infringement contentions served in this case, which are incorporated by reference pursuant to Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendant BigMachines is thus liable for infringement of the '525 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

13. Defendant Enterasys has been and now is directly infringing the `525 patent by using in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States computer implemented sales systems and methods for facilitating processes relating to the sale of products and services, including its sales quoting and configuration system and system for automated contract renewals. Enterasys has indirectly infringed the `525 patent by inducing its resellers and licensed third party users of its computer implemented sales quoting and configuration system and contract renewal system to use and practice the computer implemented sales systems and methods covered by the claims of the `525 patent. Further details regarding Enterasys' infringement of the `525 patent are set forth in SFA's infringement contentions served in this case, which are incorporated by reference pursuant to Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendant Enterasys is thus liable for infringement of the '525 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

14. Defendant Ricoh has been and now is directly infringing the `525 patent by using in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States computer implemented sales systems and methods for facilitating processes relating to the sale of products and services, including its sales configuration, pricing and proposal system. Further details regarding Ricoh's infringement of the `525 patent are set forth in SFA's infringement contentions served in this case, which are incorporated by reference pursuant to Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendant Ricoh is thus liable for infringement of the '525 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

15. Defendant Hyundai has been and now is directly infringing the `525 patent by using in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States computer implemented sales systems and methods for facilitating processes relating to the sale of products and services, including the “build your own vehicle” method practiced on various websites (including, but not limited to, hyundaiusa.com), its customer management systems, including its systems which capture and report actionable customer intelligence in areas including product design and the dealership experience. Hyundai has indirectly infringed the `525 patent by inducing its customers and authorized dealers to use and practice the computer implemented sales systems and methods covered by the claims of the `525 patent. Further details regarding Hyundai’s infringement of the `525 patent are set forth in SFA’s infringement contentions served in this case, which are incorporated by reference pursuant to Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendant Hyundai is thus liable for infringement of the ‘525 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

16. Defendant CareStream has been and now is directly infringing the `525 patent by using in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States computer implemented sales systems and methods for facilitating processes relating to the sale of products and services, including its sales configuration, pricing and proposal system. Further details regarding Carestream’s infringement of the `525 patent are set forth in SFA’s infringement contentions served in this case, which are incorporated by reference pursuant to Rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Defendant Carestream is thus liable for infringement of the ‘525 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

17. To the extent that facts learned in discovery show that Defendants’ infringement of the ‘525 patent is or has been willful, Plaintiff reserves the right to request such a finding at time of trial.

18. As a result of the above Defendants' infringement of the '525 patent, SFA has suffered monetary damages that are compensable under 35 U.S.C. § 284 in an amount not yet determined, and will continue to suffer such monetary damages in the future unless Defendants' infringing activities are permanently enjoined by this Court.

19. This case presents exceptional circumstances within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. § 285 and SFA is thus entitled to an award of its reasonable attorneys' fees.

20. The limitation of damages provision of 35 U.S.C. § 287(a) is not applicable to SFA claims in this action.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

21. SFA demands trial by jury on all claims and issues so triable.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for entry of judgment that:

1. Defendants have infringed the patents-in-suit;
2. Defendants account for and pay to SFA all damages caused by their respective infringements of the patents-in-suit; and
3. SFA be granted pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on the damages caused to it by reason of one or more of Defendants' patent infringement;
4. The Court declare this an exceptional case and that SFA be granted their reasonable attorneys' fees in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 285;
5. Costs be awarded to SFA; and
6. SFA be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances.
